

Masters Award
2013 Recipient
Pete Yanity
WSPA-TV

Recognizable voice of Clemson sports and consummate broadcaster offering enthusiastic coverage no matter the sport

- Began his career in high school and has followed his passion for more than 30 years
- Has served as sports director for WSPA-TV since 1990
- TV show host and play-by-play announcer on the Clemson Tiger Sports Network for football and men's basketball, 2003-Present
- Works as a sideline reporter for the Carolina Panthers, 2001- Present
- Leader in local high school sports coverage with emphasis on football by hosting expanded wrap-up shows
- Hosted and produced the television coaches' shows for Clemson football and basketball in the '90s as well as pre- and post-game hosting and sideline reporting for radio coverage, 2001-2003
- Served for 12 years as host and producer of Wofford College's football coach's show
- Performed various play-by-play and analyst roles for CSS, a regional cable sports network from 1999-2004
- Worked as weekend sports anchor/reporter and later as sports director for WBTW-TV
- Inducted into the Wofford College Athletic Hall of Fame as an honorary letterman, 2002
- Named 2004 SC Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association
- Received a lifetime service honor from the SC Football Coaches' Association in 2011
- Spokesman for One for the Community Campaign, an education fundraising initiative, in the late '90s and emcee of numerous charitable community events