

Wilson C. Wearn
SCBA President, 1967-68

- Graduated from Clemson University in 1941 then began his career as an engineer at Westinghouse Electric Corp.
- In 1953, organized Multimedia Broadcasting Company then served as president from 1966 to 1977. Continued to serve as president and CEO of Multimedia, Inc. from 1977-1989
- Served as NAB chairman of the board from 1975-1977
- Inducted into the SCBA Hall of Fame in 1977
- Served as member of Board of the Association of Maximum Service Television and as chairman from 1971-1973
- Held leadership positions with the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, the Greenville Hospital System, the United Way, the Greenville Symphony Association, the Community Foundation of Greater Greenville, Presbyterian College, Furman University and Clemson University, including serving as chairman of the Clemson University Foundation in 1979